Prime Minister

PARTY CONFERENCE

There is a new "Number Ten Bar" at the Imperial Hotel, and the Manager, Mr Herdman, would very much like it if you could look in for 10 minutes and have your photograph taken there. (I understand that there are photographs on the wall of all previous Prime Ministers).

You were going to do this at one lunch time, but it had to be cancelled. I wondered if you might agree to look in either, immediately on arrival at the Hotel on Monday evening (at about 7.30 p.m.) or before dinner at 8.30 after you have had a chance to see your room, etc.

Do you agree, and if so, which would you prefer to do?

At about 8.30p

(Private dinner in your suite, followed by drinks at 9.30 p.m.)
